  would be accessible, and each team chair would be responsible for placing big events on the calendar.
- Proposed Council meeting dates for 2025-2026 attachment 2.

Task Group parameters governing posted communications - Report to Council

Members: Christine Wilde, Debbie Procter, Mary McFadden, Nancy Knowles, Peter Challen.

After consultation, May 29, the Task Group recommends the following motion. Further discussions of each parameter are listed below the motion.

Motion to Council – The following parameters be adopted, governing HSUC posted communications:

- 1. Posts are to connect HSUC's values to the Grand Bend Community.
- 2. Emphasize programs as HSUC's intention to be an integral part of the Grand Bend community rather than outreach programs.
- 3. Information for the C of F is to be emphasized in Shorelines (hardcopies are available), Announcement Loop and Digital Sign.
- 4. Information to connect HSUC's values to the community are to be emphasized on Facebook and Community Bulletin Board.
- 5. Support Christine's "situational" decision-making of posts.
- 6. Never include partisan political posts.
- 7. Suggest, a biweekly, This Week at HSUC.
- 8. Educate everyone involved regarding "camera ready" posts.

Further Discussion

- 1. Posts are to connect HSUC's values to the Grand Bend Community. As a "dying" church in 2012, the church saw its survival as becoming integral to the community of Grand Bend so that the community would miss the church if it were gone. The following were started, not simply as outreach programs, but to add the church's value as an integral part of the community: Free Store, Prayer Shawls, Caring Casseroles, Grand Bend Place and the Food Pantry.
- 2. Emphasize the above programs as HSUC's intention to be an integral part of the Grand Bend community rather than outreach programs. This is from our Faith Story.
- 3. Information for the C of F is to be emphasized in Shorelines (hardcopies are available), Announcement Loop and Digital Sign. Information for the community is to be present in Shorelines, but to take up less space at the end.

- 4. Information to connect HSUC's values to the community are to be emphasized on Facebook, and the Community Bulletin Board. Posts are limited to two per day so as not to overload. No community posts are to be strictly "promotional"; all posts are to support HSUC's values, so Crabby Joe's discounted dinners are in reciprocal support of Grand Bend Place's concerts. The new Food Pantry bulletin board is especially concerning because there are discussions to distance the Food Pantry from HSUC. However, currently, our Fellowship and Outreach Team is responsible for the Food Pantry, and all messaging on its behalf is done by Christine.

- 5. Support Christine's "situational" decision-making of posts. Christine is knowledgeable about HSUC's vision, and regularly consults with Nancy Knowles and Deb Gill for clarification about posts made on sites. See below for Christine's list of posting sites on behalf of HSUC.
- 6. Never include partisan political posts. Canadian Revenue Agency forbids this for churches; advertising all-candidates meetings must give no hint of partisanship.
- 7. Suggest, a biweekly, This Week at HSUC. This publication, to the C of F via Mail Chimp, would offer a brief indication of what is happening at HSUC that week, and is to occur during the week in-between Shorelines. With both publications, the C of F is provided with a weekly communication.
- 8. Educate everyone involved regarding "camera ready" posts. Submitted posts from the C of F and community are to be camera-ready, i.e., contain few words, edited for grammar and spelling, and have simple graphics.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION – Brenda Heath:

- The committee has met a couple of times to finalize the Annual Picnic June 29, 2025. Things are well organized and "good to go" this Sunday. Dan Gill had asked the Township office to paint the doors of the washrooms at the site, as they were filled with inappropriate graffiti. After two requests, Dan painted the washroom doors this week and cleaned the bathrooms. (This was not on his Committee "to do" list) Huge thanks to Dan. We will ask the attendees to provide feedback on the event suggestions for next year etc.
- The Committee has been in touch with Ann Russell who will be unable to help with our picnic and possibly other events upcoming. We continue to wish her a good recovery. Ann is providing some items for the event this weekend.
- Heather Prosser is undertaking to review the children's activity box for use in the Sunday services. She/we will purchase some new "young children" quiet toys and activities-hoping to provide items that will provide distraction/enjoyment for them.
- We have spoken to Lois Gill regarding the summer student Mikala. She is planning to organize and "run"
   (with help) a one-day camp this summer. This Committee is willing to assist and work with Mikala. The Committee did not feel we could facilitate a full camp or even a few days of camp this year. Working with Mikala will be a good solution.
- We are now actively pursuing speakers for fall early November and early Spring April. Our plan for the fall speaker event is Joanne Schreuders speaking on "Securing Your Legacy Tips on doing it Well". This encompasses discussion about making decisions on your preparations for your family when you are gone. This is a discussion "outside a will" but rather distributing heirlooms/house contents to family and avoiding regrets when decisions are made during the grief process. She comes well-recommended.
- We will move the Farmerettes to the Spring speaker session. The group showed their documentary in Brucefield this past weekend. We opted to put some space between that event and our booking.
