Federal Election 2025: Why is informed voting so important?

Engage, Pray, Vote.

I believe that informed voting is our Christian and civic duty.

As you prepare to vote in the upcoming election, beware of misinformation and disinformation. If you are on social media, remember to fact check before you share. Does a post elicit a strong reaction, either positive or negative? Be especially cautious.

Try searching online with the exact words presented in quotation marks. Is there a reputable news source sharing that quote? Quotes that are only found on social media sites are most often false. Being often shared does not make it more true, but it can increase the harm of misinformation and disinformation.

Vote with your faith and conscience. Vote with good information. And make your vote count!

ONLY FOR A MOMENT by Danny Gokey

Meditation:

There's a well-known Bible verse that says that "weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning." In other words, "this too shall pass." The trouble that we face in a particular moment, will only be for that particular moment...no matter how long the moment lasts.

So, what does it mean 'joy comes in the morning'?

Have you ever gone to bed at night with a heavy heart and under the cover of darkness had a time of quiet weeping? When it's just you, the darkness, and God? Let's be honest...we've all been there at some point in our life.

Most of the time, I have to hold my hand up high. Sometimes I don't want to share what troubles me with anyone else except God. But the truth is, I usually feel a little better after I have bawled my eyes out and I do remind myself of Psalm 30:5, that 'weeping may endure for the night.....but joy comes in the morning'

It is true. When morning comes my heart is usually lighter and I sometimes wonder why I had got so upset the night before. The reason for that could be that my emotions lied to me, or it could also be that in my hurt, anger, and pain, I turned to God and laid out all my feelings of upset or hurt.

It's not necessarily that my problems have been taken away – it's just that I feel stronger, more capable, encouraged.

The Hebrew word for joy used in Psalm 30:5 is "rinnah". It means "a ringing cry of entreaty, supplication" or "a ringing cry in proclamation, joy, praise." But how about when it means both? I think that the joy that comes in the morning can be a deep cry of prayer mixed with a song of praise. Joy is not found after the painful episodes that we go through when everything has been made right, but true joy is knowing that God is with us, even in the moments of our difficulties and cares.

Have you heard this news?

We have a renovated church (well, 7 years ago), we have a new minister and now we are going to have a new photo directory! The last one was produced in 2016 - nearly 10 years ago!

The photo sessions (no cost to you or the church) commence the first week of July. There will be opportunities to sign up at church on Sundays or online starting May 4th.

Won't it be great to have your own photo directory of your church family that is current? We think so!

As of September 7, 10:00 am will be our new worship service start time!

The majority of our congregation, along with our Council members, have agreed to move the worship service start time to 10 am, following this year's summer services. This decision will be reviewed again next spring.

Meanwhile, summer worship services will remain at 9 am until September.

Thanks so much for your input!
